The new Tariff regime, the removal of incentives for electric vehicles and renewable energy and a rising dependency ratio, will result in a bipolar world. One (US and those countries who adopt a similar tariff regime) faced with higher inflationary expectations, shortages and higher cost of capital and the rest of the world with declining inflation expectations, surplus capacity and declining cost of capital. This will increase the risks to the Global Economy. Central Banks in the USA, China and Emerging Economies have scope to lower interest rates to support their economies. Europe has substantially completed its interest rate easing cycle.

With most countries having very high Fiscal deficits, high and rising debt, ageing populations, increasing interest costs and defense spending are putting budgets under further pressure, with higher deficits or crowding out other expenditure like social security and healthcare. The USA "Big Beautiful Bill" is expected to add $3-5T to their fiscal debt over 10 years. Outside the USA most countries will try and support their economies and businesses with fiscal support, thereby increasing their national debt levels and deficits. In the last major economic and financial market dislocations, the global financial crisis (2008) and Covid-pandemic (2020), economies were supported by massive Fiscal and Monetary stimulus (including lower interest rates and quantitative easing). This time round, with government balance sheets constrained, and tariffs fueling inflation risk it is unlikely that Fiscal and Monetary policies will provide major support to the Global economy and financial markets. The next while requires steady heads and Statesman to see us through this period of extreme uncertainty.

Global equities (MSCI ACWI Islamic Index) after a negative first quarter with returns of -3.0%, the second quarter had robust returns of 11.6% resulting in returns of 9.0% and 7.5% for the year to date and 12 months respectively. With the US stocks lagging their Global peers and the Dollar Index losing 10.7% in the first half of the year, this is the first time since the financial crisis that US stocks and the US $ underperformed their global peers, led by Europe and non-Asian Emerging markets. Cheap European (PE 15.0), Emerging Markets (PE 15.2) and risk diversifying, gold equities outperformed. At the end of June 2025 the valuations remain very expensive with PE's on indices like Nasdaq (58.7), S&P (24.4), Russel 2000 (32.4), and equities like Tesla (155), Nvidia (51.1) and Apple (30.1), having significant downside risk. Given the elevated economic uncertainty and high interest rates, risks remain at high levels, especially in the most expensive markets and sectors of the market.

*Excl. Financial & Property

The Oasis Crescent Global Equity Fund had good returns of 13.2% and 9.1% outperforming by 4.2% and 1.6% for the last 6 months and year respectively. The funds exposure to market leading domestically focused equities, low-cost gold equities in favorable jurisdictions and low exposure to expensive technology and sectors exposed to global trade have positioned it well to navigate these difficult times. Since inception the fund has delivered an annual return of 6.5% p.a. relative to its benchmark of 3.6% p.a. outperforming by 2.9% p.a. at lower risk than the benchmark with a Sharpe ratio of 0.29 versus 0.09 respectively and a downside correlation of 78% over 115 bear months in the Funds 295 month history.
