The Global economy continues to be negatively impacted by the Western Asian War, with growth estimates lowered, except for US and China. Global growth is supported by:

1) A massive AI related infrastructure build particularly in the USA and China. This is a multi-year build out with the biggest impact in 2026. It is broad ranged covering many industries including Hyperscale technology companies building Data Centres, Semiconductor companies making microchips and Utilities supplying electricity. A lot of this capex is funded by debt and unproven business models, which could result in a massive overbuild of AI infrastructure.

2) Fiscal spend supported by high budget deficits and increasing government debt, with rising interest cost (USA interest cost now 18.3% of government revenue and a fiscal deficit of 5.2% of GDP)

The impact of the Western Asian war on commodity prices, including fertilizer will have a medium term impact on agricultural production and prices, together with second round price effects, this will keep inflation higher for longer. Central Banks have moved from an interest cutting cycle to a holding and rising interest rate cycle.

With rising interest rates, and inflation, the cost of debt will impact both the private and public sectors. With remuneration lagging inflation, most consumers will be affected by rising cost of living. The risk to the global economy is high, especially for highly indebted countries, dependent on food and oil imports and those lagging in the AI spend.

The Global economic risks remain high as 1) geopolitical tension, 2) energy and food supply chain disruption, 3) higher inflation and interest rates, 4) expanding government debt, 5) deteriorating demographics in many countries, 6) the rise of made "By China", 7) unstable governments, and 8) slower economic growth. Economies that are able to navigate through this period will prosper.

The MSCI World Real Estate Index increased by 6.6 % for the first half of 2026. European and UK REIT markets underperformed over the medium term with valuations being attractive. M&A has started up with Prologis making an offer to acquire Europe's largest Logistics REIT Segro. In an environment of higher inflation and interest rates, REITs with high-quality property portfolios and strong balance sheets with lower debt levels are expected to perform better.

The Oasis Crescent Global Property Fund, (OCGPEF), (The Fund), benefited from its stock selection and outperformed for the half year to 30 June 2026, delivering a return of 11.8%. OCGPEF has a portfolio of high-quality REITs with positive demand and supply fundamentals in secular growth sectors, supported by strong balance sheets and experienced management. The Fund is well positioned, with 10% cash or near-cash holdings to add value over the long term.
