Fund Manager Comments

The global economic recovery is expected to continue during 2022. The IMF is forecasting that world GDP will expand 4.9% in 2022 after 5.9% in 2021. Despite the strong recovery, there are a number of factors which continue to result in volatility, including new COVID variants, challenges in vaccine rollout in the developing world, disruptions in global supply chains, significantly elevated inflation and concerns over the Chinese property sector. Global central banks have signalled the start of a withdrawal of monetary stimulus against a backdrop of inflation proving to be much higher and more persistent than previously anticipated. The challenge remains to contain elevated inflation pressures without undermining the recovery in employment and the broader economy. Against this backdrop, bond yields are expected to be volatile but central banks have previously pledged to do whatever it takes to support economic recovery and financial markets stability.

Factors that could boost global growth is 1) drawdown on massive build-up in consumer savings; 2) the wealth effect of robust financial markets; 3) pent-up demand, particularly in leisure and travel sectors; 4) continued easy monetary & fiscal policy; and 5) significant increase in OPEC oil production lowering oil prices. Factors that could constrain global growth are 1) rapidly rising inflation 2); new, more transmissible variants of Covid-19; 3) a faster-than-expected reversal of monetary and fiscal support; 4) constrained global supply chains, especially in logistics and semiconductors; and 5) increased geopolitical tension between US and China.

Due to successful COVID-19 vaccination rollouts and the lower levels of capital investment and development activity curtailing new property supply, we are starting to see an improving environment for existing property owners. OCGPEF is well diversified with exposure to a number of sectors that benefit from the 4th Industrial Revolution and COVID-19 including Logistics, Datacenters, Storage and Medical Research. There are also a number of sectors that benefit from other secular drivers including Ageing (Seniors Housing) and Onshoring (Industrial). OCGPEF is well positioned due to its focus on REITs with positive secular demand drivers, strong management teams and superior balance sheets. The Fund displays very attractive valuation characteristics with an average cash flow yield of 5.0% and dividend yield of 3.1% which offers a lot of value relative to the average bond yield of 2.0%.
